

MORNINGSTAR CULTURAL ARTS GROUP PRESENTS

La Boutique Fantasque

and dances for Chanukah,
Christmas, and Kwanzaa

Performed by the Maxine Patterson Dancers

Lucas Theatre

Saturday, December 6th

3:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.

WELCOME

We would like to welcome you to our performance of La Boutique Fantasque. The dancers have worked really hard in rehearsals and we are so happy that you are here to see the results.

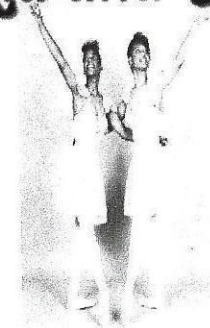

When we decided to do this performance, it was with the hope that the students could continue enriching their lives through dance. With many hours of rehearsals, the dancers have accomplished this goal. We feel sure that the success of this performance will lead to future programs. If you have ideas for future performances, please share them with me. Also, I am always looking for assistance in producing performances like this one. If you have some time, let me know—there's always plenty to do.

I would especially like to extend my heartfelt thanks to my instructors at the studios for their guidance and the knowledge they share with the performers—they are always working their hardest to help the kids continue to improve their technique and their patience is really in evidence here and very much appreciated. The instructors are: Stephanie Cummings, Robbin Dozier, Candice Nash, Amanda Rupard, Heather Wrubel and Nakia Young. Thanks ladies!

This first winter dance concert is dedicated to my mom, Ruth Dermer. I miss seeing her every day at the studio and I want her to know how much I love her.

A LITTLE ABOUT

Maxine Patterson began teaching dance in 1969 at the May St. YMCA. This was the beginning of a wonderful career that is now in its 34th year. Mrs. Patterson now owns her studio on Lincoln & 39th, and has classes at the JEA, Savannah Country Day School, Maggie's Morning School, and St. Francis Cabrini School. There are about 200 students currently enrolled and 6 contracted instructors. Her students perform around the city for various functions, including the Black Heritage Festival, sorority events, senior housing programs and shows in the malls. The most recent performances were for the Gulfstream Management Association, and for the opening ceremonies for the Weightlifting competition. Mrs. Patterson is now teaching many second-generation Maxine Patterson students.

Joanne Lee of Atlanta was the choreographer for "La Boutique Fantasque". Ms. Lee is originally from Australia where she danced professionally before moving to Beaufort & opening a dance school. While there, Ms. Lee came to Savannah on weekends to direct the Junior Company of Savannah Ballet Guild. A few years later, Joanne moved to Atlanta to become an instructor at the Atlanta Ballet School. She was artistic director of the apprentice company for many years, giving her the opportunity to teach and choreograph for hundreds of dance students.

Candice Nash, a native of Savannah, began dancing at age 6 and became a member of Ballet South when she was 11. A graduate of Windsor Forest High School and a member of the marching band there, Candice graduated from Florida A & M in 1998. While in college, she marched in the "FAMU Marching 100" and performed in Orchesis Contemporary Dance Theatre. She received some excellent dance training throughout her college years and is presently an instructor at Maxine Patterson School of Dance.

James Lee, Guest Artist Mr. Lee danced with the Atlanta Ballet for 10 years, while dancing as a guest artist with other companies throughout the South. Favorite roles include principal and soloist performances in Candy Canes of The Nutcracker and the Prince in Cinderella.

"LA BOUTIQUE FANTASQUE"

music: Respighi

choreography: Joanne Lee

staged by: Maxine Patterson

costumes: Wanda Parnell and Maxine Patterson

The ballet takes place in a toyshop in Southern France where various dolls entertain the customers. The English Maidens and the American family watch the Tarantella dolls and the Cards. When the Russian family arrives, they are treated to a lively dance by the Cossack dolls.

Then the customers are treated to a performance by the Can-Can dolls who are best friends. Each family chooses one of these dolls, pays and arranges to have the dolls delivered to the hotel the following day.

That night, the other dolls figure out a plan to keep their friends from being separated. When the dolls do not arrive as promised, the families return to the toyshop to check on them. They get quite upset when the boxes are found to be empty. The dolls are triumphant in the end.
